Published by Pandanus Books

A benchmark reference survey on the political parties of the Pacific and an invaluable resource for students, scholars and researchers of the Pacific and international politics, with chapters on East Timor, Papua New Guinea, Solomon Islands, Vanuatu, New Caledonia, Fiji and Samoa. By addressing the implications of the lack of established and effective political party systems across the Pacific, this articulate collection looks at the importance of coherent and effective parties to democracy, governance and stability in the Pacific Islands.

The book will be launched by CDI Director Ben Reilly, with an address by contributing author Tarcisius Kabutaulaka offering a Solomon Islands’ perspective on Political Parties in the Pacific Islands.
