Canberra Conference and Workshop Program

Indonesia’s Ascent: Power, Leadership and Asia’s Security Order

Thursday 14 February 2013

Location: Brindabella Theatre, National Security College, Level 2
(JG Crawford Building (132a), 1 Lennox Crossing, ANU)

Presentation Structure

- Author Presentations: 15 minutes each
- Commentator: 15 minutes for 2 papers, 20 minutes for 3 papers
- Question time per session: 20 minutes

Conference Program

8:30-9:00 Coffee, Tea and Juice Served (outside conference venue)

9:00-9:20 Welcome Remarks

Session 1

- Dr Sue Thompson, ‘The Historical Foundations for Indonesia’s Leadership in Asia and Beyond’
- Mr Robert (Bob) Lowry, ‘Security Fault Lines: Unresolved Issues and New Challenges’
- Dr Stephen Sherlock, ‘The Political Environment and the Prospects for Progress beyond 2014’
- Commentator: Associate Professor Leonard Sebastian

10:25-10:55 Morning Tea

Session 2
10:55-12:00 The Factors Informing Foreign Policy and the Utility of Middle Power Leadership

- Ms Avery Poole, ‘The Foreign Policy Nexus: National Interests, Political Values and Identity’
- Professor Mark Beeson and Will Lee, ‘Indonesia and the Democratic Middle Powers: A New Basis for Collaboration’
- Commentator: Professor Michael Wesley

12:00-13:00 Lunch: NSC Common Room
Session 3

13:00-14:25  Indonesia’s Maritime Boundaries and Bilateral Relations

- Dr Derry Habir and Dr Christopher Roberts, ‘Indonesia-Australia Relations: How Critical and What Potential?’
- Dr Yongwook Ryu, ‘Key Intra-ASEAN bilateral relationships: Opportunities and Challenges (Canberra Workshop)
- Associate Professor Leonard Sebastian and I Made Andi Arsana, ‘Maritime Interests and the Law of the Sea’
- Commentator: Professor Mark Turner

14:25-14:40  Closing Remarks

14:40-15:10  Afternoon Tea

Author’s Workshop (authors and lead investigators)

15:10-16:30  Review of Papers

- Purpose: to discuss any lessons learned, possible amendments for the issues briefs, and issues and ideas to consider for the enlarged chapter.

16:30-18:00  Break

Dinner (authors, commentators and lead investigators)

6:00-8:00  Venue: Spicy Ginger Cuisine restaurant (2/25 Childers Street, Canberra)